THE CAMERA AT PHILLIPPI

Scenes of the Fox Meet at that Historical Hunting Ground

"SAID GOVERNOR TO GOVERNOR"

Sport Royal in the Old North State.
The Picaninny that Enjoyed Himself—Dressing Gown Start.

D. Schenck, Jr., captured a lot of photographs down at the Phillippi fox meet that he prizes more than any other trophy of the event. There are two dozen of them and they cover all the phases of life at the camp. One of the pictures shows all the nimrods just as they returned from the chase. Governor Atkinson, of Georgia, is in the centre with Reynard in his hand and the other members of the group are J. F. Jordan, Wm. A. Love, Maj. J. J. Nelson, D. Schenck, Jr., Capt. Oscar J. Brown, of the U. S. cavalry and A. F. Brooks.

Governor Atkinson insisted on holding the fox. He said that he had a lot of constituents down in Georgia, who were disposed to be skeptical about his being off on a fox hunt, and he wished to have ocular evidence that he both hunted and caught. It is not at all improbable that this picture will figure in future cracker campaigns down in the red hills of Joel Chandler Harris and Frank L. Stanton. The Governor looks handsome and youthful, and sits his horse like a born Cavalier. Captain Brown of the first cavalry has been in the frontier service since 1877. He was instructor in horsemanship in West Point for a number of years, and is a magnificent equestrian. One of the pictures in which he and the Governor appear makes it certain that it was unnecessary for the Governor of Georgia to reiterate the suggestion once made by the "Governor of North Carolina to the Governor of South Carolina." His fondest wishes in that direction were manifestly anticipated by the gentlemen of the party.

One of the most unique of the collection shows Mr. Jordan answering the call "boots and saddles" in a dressing gown, while Mr. Love appears canopied with an umbrella. The pictures of the famous dogs, old Mose, Bert, Kate, Wonder, Lena and Dash are excellent, but then a dog of all animals is the especial pet of the camera.

The "shirtless picaninny" should become classic. As a photographic art study the magazines have shown nothing better, while the "picaninny and pine rooster" are breezy of the pine and sand flats at Phillippi.

Sam Harvey Drunk Again.

Sam Harvey, who lives somewhere out on Ashe street, was drunk again last night. It was only last Sunday that he was pulled for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and on Monday he was released by the mayor on promise of good behavior. But he soon forgot his promise, for he was rip-roaring drunk last night, and his performance of last Sunday was a tame affair compared with last night's "exercises."

Sam appeared on the streets with a shot gun, and must have thought it was Christmas or imagined that he was a revenue officer after moonshiners. He blazed away with his old gun causing terror in the immediate vicinity, but no one was hit. He must have shot at the moon, thinking the moonshiners were up there.

His Honor, the mayor, will probably enforce a sober spell on Sam this trip. He seems to be an old offender, and has heretofore gotten off very lightly. He was arrested last night by officer Whittington.

All Smiles at G. F. C.

The enrollment of Greensboro Female College has reached one hundred and thirty. Three new students arrived yesterday evening. President Peacock tells us this is the largest enrollment the college has had for seven years. At least ten more students are expected to arrive by the end of the fall term, which will run the enrollment up to a hundred and forty. This excellent showing is richly deserved; there is no better female school in the state.

NEW SPANISH MINISTER.

Other Diplomatic Changes Likely to Follow Shortly.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, Oct. 8.—Among the diplomatic changes reported as being imminent is that the Duke of Almodovar or Senor Murguaya will replace Dupuy de Lome as Spanish minister to the United States.

MONSTER DOUBLE MENAGERIE

With John Robinson and Franklin Bros. Shows Combined.

The menagerie department of these combined shows is beyond a doubt the greatest that the world has ever known. The two menageries have been blended into one, and the combining of these two separate and distinct departments alone would make a display the equal of which has never been seen in the country. There are two distinct herds of elephants, camels and all sorts of lead stock, two separate departments of lions, tigers, panthers and the only pair of real black tigers that has ever been seen in this country. The den of polar bears is a positive revelation to amusement seekers and the same thing was never seen in this country before with a traveling show.

A great many dens of rare wild beasts are displayed daily in the magnificent street parade, which is free to all and will take place daily at 10 a. m. And the very important fact must not be overlooked that every other department of these great shows is a double one, unlike any ever before seen. Many shows have and do at the present time advertised dishonestly that they have two shows in one, but there has never been a combining of two really great shows in this land before, and people who are in doubt as to the genuineness of the putting together of the John Robinson and Franklin Bros. Shows can readily set their minds at rest. This monster amusement institution comes so Greensboro, Saturday Oct. 16th, for one day and will give two complete performances.

THE COLORED MILITIA.

Capt. Taylor Will Take His Company to Raleigh.

Capt. C. S. L. A. Taylor, who, as noted several days ago, went to Raleigh to make arrangements in connection with his chief marshalship at the Colored Industrial Fair, returned yesterday, reporting everything satisfactory. He takes his company—the Charlotte Light Infantry—to the fair, and right now he asks the Observer to ask "the white folks to let his men off." Surely there isn't a merchant in town who has ever seen Capt. Taylor drill his men who will deny him the pleasure of taking them to Raleigh to show the people down there military tactics as only Capt. Taylor knows them.

Capt. Taylor, who is also an enthusiastic Odd Fellow, being deputy district grand, went to Concord last night, on lodge business. — Charlotte Observer.

Our County Roads.

A gentleman who takes a great interest in the development of our county road system, tells us that the road force is doing good work between Guilford College and Oak Ridge. Prof. Bandy has made surveys of the Perkins hill, and the hill near Stafford's mill and the grade has been reduced from 18 to 25 per cent.

We most heartily commend the wisdom of our county commissioners in securing the services of an engineer. We regret that occasionally a man is found so narrow and selfish as to try to retard this most important work.

Give Guilford county a good system of roads and a good public school system in addition to her excellent private schools—one to develop her agriculture and material interests, the other for her educational advancement and the result will be well worth the trial.

Morning's Fever Bulletin.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New Orleans, Oct. 8.—The morning report showed six new cases of yellow fever and three deaths. Three of these cases were reported too late last night to be included in the official bulletin, also one death. The quarantines are being rapidly removed from the houses and the number of recoveries averages twenty per day.

At Edwards.

Edwards, Miss., Oct. 8.—Three deaths from fever were reported this morning, making the total to date eighteen.

EIGHTY HORSES ROASTED ALIVE.

All the Result of a Boy and a Cigarette Stub—Fireman Injured.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Kansas City, Oct. 8.—Eighty horses were burned to death here today in the stables of the Kansas City Transfer Company. Eight firemen were injured by the falling of the walls. The fire was caused by a lighted cigarette stump which a boy threw among the rubbish.

Prisoner of Zenda Comes to America.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Oct. 8.—Among the passengers on the St. Paul from Southampton to New York tomorrow are Mrs. Elizabeth Vanderbilt, Lettie Collins and Anthony Hope, the well known English novelist.

GIVE US PIE, THE BATTLE CRY

Of the Hungry Colored Brother
Last Night

SNICKERSNEE FOR CO. OFFICERS

The Disposal of the Postoffice Left to Senator Pritchard—Boiling Enthusiasm—A Block of Five.

In response to the handbill signed "Many Republicans," calling a meeting at Bogart's Hall last night, the colored brother swarmed and pitched—pitched at the hall and pitched into certain other people. The object of the meeting was to protest against the treatment received by the colored voter at the hands of white Republicans, and the Republican officials of Guilford county especially.

It was a colored man's meeting from start to finish and the hall was packed and jammed. There was a benchful of white Republicans present but, as one of the promoters of the meeting expressed it, "it got too warm for 'em and they skipped out in a bunch."

W. E. Holley was made chairman and A. G. Nelson secretary of the meeting. Speeches were made by D. J. Gilmer, Prof. J. S. Williams, of colored graded school No. 1, Prof. John Edwell, of Jonesboro school, and Prof. W. B. Windsor, of Bennett college. The speeches were warm and were all along the same line—denunciation of the county Republican officials for their ingratitude in not dividing the spoils. Some say that Tyre Glenn was excepted from the anathemas and some say he was not.

One of the speakers said it was the white Democrats who gave the colored man the employment that enabled him to feed his family; that the negro did not object to the treatment of the Democrats but of the Republicans. Prof. Edwell said that under the fusion arrangement the Populists, with 50,000 voters, get two-thirds of the spoils, the white Republicans get the rest and the negro, with 120,000 voters, gets nothing. He advised colored men to vote with the party that promised the most spoils, regardless of politics or religion. It was declared to be the sense of the meeting that a split be made in the Republican party in this county.

In regard to the post-office, the meeting gave Senator Pritchard a vote of confidence and said that whatever action he might take would be satisfactory.

A committee of five was appointed to wait on Sheriff Hoskins and ask him to give a colored man a position of some nature. No mention was made of the Bridges meeting.

O'FERRALL AFTER LYNCHERS.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 8.—Governor O'Ferrall offers a reward of five hundred dollars for the capture and delivery of any ten persons who participated in the recent hanging of Henry Walls, in Patrick county.

Walls was accused of the murder of a young girl in that county and a mob took him from the officers and lynched him. The Governor is determined to have them arraigned for trial.

CANNOT FIND MISS CISNEROS.

Believed that She Has Been Smuggled out of the Island.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Havana, Oct. 8.—Though Weyler's agents are making industrious search all over the island, no trace of the hiding place of Miss Cisneros has been discovered. The houses of suspected Cuban sympathizers, have been searched, the prison officials have been arrested, and many persons have been subjected to severe examination, but the whereabouts of the girl have not been revealed. The belief is growing that she has been smuggled off the island.

PACKING ESTABLISHMENT GOES.

Loss $75,000 and the Origin of the Fire Unknown.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Portland, Oct. 8.—The Zimmerman Packing Company's establishment situated two blocks from the business part of the city was burned this morning. The loss of the building with contents amounts to over seventy-five thousand dollars. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Over Million in Gold Leaves England.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Oct. 8.—Today's shipment of gold to New York will be heavy. It is estimated that the shipment will be between one and two million dollars.

POTATO PINGREE POPS UP.

He Has Been Prospecting in Venezuela.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 8.—Governor Pingree of Michigan, who caused so much talk by his disappearance several weeks ago and whose whereabouts was not definitely known, arrived here from Venezuela this morning. He came in on the Red D. Line steamer Venezuela. He is in perfect health and reports that he enjoyed his vacation immensely.

He met President-elect Andrade, who proved to be a broad minded and liberal statesman. Governor Pingree will leave for Michigan this evening.

MARCH DESPITE THE INJUNCTION.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Trouble Looked for at the De Armit
Mines Tomorrow.

Pittsburg, Pa. Oct. 8.—Trouble may occur at the Plum Creek mines tomorrow. The non-union men refuse to work today while the marchers from camp Isolation remained at the mines. Deputy Sheriff young thereupon, acting under order from Superintendent De Armit, served an injunction upon the strikers and warned them that if they made similar demonstrations tomorrow, they would be arrested. The men say they will march notwithstanding the threat.

SPAIN'S RESOURCES EXHAUSTED.

Her Military Power Must Collapse if Hostilities Continue.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

St. Paul, Minn. Oct. 8.—Senator Davis, chairman of the committee on Foreign relations, says that Spain's resources are exhausted and that her military power in Cuba will surely collapse if hostilities continue much longer. He further says that Cuba will surely be ours; that freedom will come first and annexation afterward.

Appointed Minister to Bolivia.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The President today appointed Dr. Geo. N. Bridgeman, of Elizabeth, N. J., Minister to Bolivia.

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

Please Note.

Those having business with THE TELEGRAM, will please call at the office in Katz building. Pressure of business in his own office makes it impossible, since our removal, for Mr. Stone to attend to the business of THE TELEGRAM also.

GOING FURTHER TO FARE WORSE.

There are few things that are more preached and less practiced than the patronage of home industries. Greensboro is no exception to this rule. A man is, of course, at liberty to spend his money where he pleases; it is not a question of right, but of wisdom. It should be kept in mind that every dollar in profits that leaves this community impoverishes it by just that much. Every dollar that is kept here tends to the enrichment of the community by just so much. Every man who patronizes a foreign industry inevitably hurts himself. Money spent with a firm in this city goes out, to a large extent, in wages, rents and fuel to reappear in almost every business here. If the retailer who spends five hundred dollars with a local jobber were to mark his money he would soon find some of it handed in over his own counter.

It is safe to say that fifty thousand dollars in profits go elsewhere every year that might just as well be kept here. Fifty thousand dollars floating, as most of it would, in the channels of trade would mark the difference between good times and hard times, between easy collections and difficult collections. In nine cases out of ten the man who fails to settle his bills promptly does so because the man who owes him in turn cannot settle promptly. Ten dollars of surplus in the pocket of one man would settle twenty bills in the course of a week and save as many business men time and inconvenience and annoyance. The margin between, the community that is making money as a whole, and the one that is losing money is much narrower than most people imagine. Patronizing local industries is a factor sufficiently powerful to change a money losing into a money saving community.

It is not only poor sentiment, but it is poorer business to buy elsewhere what can be bought here just as cheaply. Greensboro is, unquestionably, the best distributing point in the state. Here should be located wholesale houses that, in the course of time, would largely supply a retail trade in the state that now makes its purchases in northern cities.

Every wholesaler who locates here should be made to feel that, so far as is practicable his hands will be upheld while he is establishing his business. Yet we know wholesale establishments here that put thousands of dollars in circulation in our city who get a larger trade from towns of one thousand people than from Greensboro. Why is this? Simply because they are located here. They would get more trade here if they were located in New York or Baltimore. It is the old case of the prophet in his own country.

If Greensboro is to be a city she will have to slough such whimsicality; not that it is a fault peculiar to us—other towns in the state have it in much the same degree.

MR. Low states that the mayor of Greater New York, will have no time for partisan politics. That is a laudible and proper sentiment. The unfortunate part of it, is that it will lead to partisan politics having no time for Mr. Low before he gets to be mayor.

WHILE it may be true that the United States Treasury has all the gold it wants, just at present, it would not be a bad idea to lay up a little against a rainy day. It is not always possible to lay a hand on eagles when a few of them would come in specially handy.

It has been lying so heavily on our mind for some days, that we cannot longer forbear to inquire whether the Charlotte man who paid the tax on the blockade whiskey, after it was consumed, was the same man who saw eighty-seven snakes at one time.

THORN need not feel that Mrs. Nack puts him in a class by himself, when she accuses him of having "talked too much." There is Emperor William, for example, to keep him company.

THE New York judge set the Guldensuppe murder trial, for the sixteenth. It is well. The Luetgert case is too firmly established to go up against just now.

MR. Hanna's speeches suggest that possibly he employs a Lino-type machine, instead of a type-writer, in preparing the copy.

It may now be appropriately remarked that amity is brooding like a gentle jackdaw over the ranks of the untortured elect.

CAN it be that Mr. Mott desires to incur the title of the "Pitch-fork Statesman of Wilkes?"

THE tariff issue is now suffering from what may be termed a diversion into its favor.

CURRENT TOPICS.

Owing to the fact that wells and springs have run dry in Osceola, Arkansas, water is selling there at five cents a quart.

President Harper, of the University of Chicago, announces that any football player of the University who shall use unfair tactics in playing will be expelled from the University.

The famous collection of birds made by the naturalist Alfred Brehm and his father, who was a clergyman, has been bought for a London museum by Baron Rothschild. It includes over 10,000 specimens of European birds, and differs from other collections in having each variety represented by several individuals of both sexes and different ages.

Not for many years have fish been so plentiful in Boston harbor as they are now. Flounders, perch and smelt are running in great schools off Spectacle Island, and cod of good size are being caught.

Paris barbers and hair dressers are now obliged by the police to take sanitary measures in carrying on their business. Elaborate regulations have been sent out requiring them to use only nickel plated combs, to substitute pulverized for powder puffs, to cover the hair cut off with sawdust and have it removed at once, to wash their hands before working on a customer and to place all metallic instrument, razors, shears, combs, etc., in a solution of soap and boiling water for ten minutes before they are used.—Scientific American.

Florida's orange crop for 1897-98 will soon be going forward to market, and a good many estimates are being made as to what the crop will figure up. Last season it amounted to about 125,000 boxes. That was the first year's fruit after the freeze, and the crop was accordingly very small, especially when it is recollected that the product of the state had been numbered in millions rather than in thousands of boxes. A careful estimate made by a gentleman who is well informed as to the crop throughout the state places it in round numbers at about 200,000 boxes. It is believed that these figures are conservative, and that the crop will go above rather than below the figures named.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

The State Fair.

On account of the North Carolina State Agricultural Fair at Raleigh, the Southern Railway will sell tickets on October 16, 17, 18, 19, 22 and 23 at rate of one first-class limited fare for the round trip, plus 50c. for one admission to the fair grounds. The fare from Greensboro will be $3.15.

On October 20th and 21st, special tickets will be sold from this city for $2.40, which also includes one admission to the fair grounds.

Notes of The Prowler

He came from the commonwealth of Wilkes. He had not said so as yet but there was that about the lofty contempt with which he surveyed the indications of effiteness that met his eye everywhere that was vocal of the bourne from which he hailed. He also exhaled the aroma of blue peaks and hazy distances and other things that about up in Wilkes. He had been doing the town in the noontide sunshine and he was warm and mortal thirsty and mirages of clear streams gurgled over the ragged edge of his fancy. He tried the hydrant in front of the temple of justice, but like the temple of justice, it was not to his liking. His thirst was of the rich seal brown variety, born of pavements and triple extract served hot. It suddenly occurred to him that somewhere he had heard that people who were denied the native coolness of Wilkian streamlets had ice in midsummer. He went for a tailoring shop with the alacrity born of an idea. He received courteous directions to the dispenser of Klondyke weather and soon emerged with a chunk of it under his arm. Remembering that the court house is every man's property he stuck his head in the window of the clerk's office and punctured the siesta of that mild official with a requisition for a bucket. But nary a bucket got he. He was told that the clerk's office was not a bucket shop. His chunk of ice was meantime getting smaller and his chunk of thirst larger, and after a few more fruitless efforts he sat him down on the green with a pair of rocks and proceeded to pulverize that piece of ice. As the fragments clicked against his ivory he remarked that the "water up to Wilkes is a blame site cooler 'an this."

Why is it that every woman is consumed by an even unusual curiosity in regard to men's clubs? Yet it seems to be almost universal. The average woman simply cannot understand what a club is for anyway, and with a woman the line of demarcation between not knowing and wishing to know, is quite imperceptible. Therefore she bristles with interrogatives. The club is going to give a reception some of these days and we venture the prophecy, that no regrets will reward those invitations sent to ladies. A man's club! No woman will ever miss an opportunity to see what a man's house keeping is like, and she fancies a club is the place to see it.

The street preacher should be a fine judge of human character; no one has a better opportunity to study it. In the crowd gathered around the street preacher, when business is not pressing, you can find representatives of every grade and almost every calling. They are not interested especially, they merely stop because it is odd and others stop, but there you will find them all the same. The woman preacher was holding forth last night at the corner of Elm and Sycamore streets. A queer little eddy in the stream, it was too. The October moon just swinging toward the zenith, the woman in the street haranguing in high nasal tones, almost hysterical at times, on the curbing a row of rough mountaineers sitting, intent listeners to a man, standing behind them a group, conglomerate of all the many elements that a southern town can furnish, and a bill board covered with circus posters for a back ground! Who shall say that the clown grinning in carmine, was not typical of the Elf that is ever smiling, behind the curtain that never lifts, at "Life's Little Ironies."

Flawless Underwear.
Endorsed and commended by best known Physicians of the country. "Two-fold throughout, thereby creating an inter-air space," which affords complete protection from draughts or sudden chills, warmer, softer, with no irritation to the skin, more elastic, better fitting and with less weight than single fabric underwear. Manufactured from finest selected and hand-sorted Australian Lamb's Wool. Adapted for wear to Men, Ladies and Children, and surpassing in protection to the person—comfort and pleasure to the wearer—any goods heretofore offered to the public.

On the strength of this we have purchased a large lot of these goods, and we will be glad to have you call and examine them. Your opinion is worth much to us, whether you wish to buy or not.

Orioles the Victor Yesterday.
Worcester, Mass., Oct. 7.—The Boston and Baltimore league teams played here, today. The game was not exactly of the sort to make the rooter grow enthusiastic, for it was merely an exhibition contest and in consequence the men played rather listlessly. Nevertheless some sharp playing was done and the 3,500 spectators enjoyed the exhibition. Both teams indulged in hard hitting. Hickman, who pitched for Boston led in that respect, getting a home run and three bagger, in addition to a single. Hughey Jennings, when he stepped to the plate in the second inning, was presented with a gold-headed cane by the Holy Cross College students. The two teams play tomorrow in Springfield.
The following is the score:
Baltimore.....2 0 2 2 1 1 0 2 1—11
Boston.....3 4 0 0 1 0 1 1—10

How Towns Are Built.
Rev. Dr. Talmage says: "No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as a newspaper well patronized, and its power should be appreciated." Newspapers build up a town in innumerable ways—chiefly, perhaps, by building up the enterprising trade establishments, which are the pillars of a town's material and substantial development.—Philadelphia Record.

Something to Depend On.
Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

We bought a quantity of these garments last season, and sold every garment, all of them to Greensboro citizens, and before buying this season, we have been personally to see every customer for these goods, and they all without hesitation say that it is the nicest underwear it has ever been their good fortune to secure. They also informed us that they would furnish us with letters if we desired.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

C. E. Holton, Esq., of Durham, is in the city.

L. B. Brickenstein, of Salem, was in the city today.

Mrs. Henry Kime, of Burlington, is a visitor in the city today.

Chas. Ragan and Will Jones, of High Point, are in the city.

Mr. J. R. Paddison, of Mt. Airy, spent the day in Greensboro.

The vestibule going south this morning was over two hours late.

The pastors of the city are requested to send in church notices by noon tomorrow.

John M. Dick, proprietor of the steam laundry, went up to Winston this afternoon.

The Bogart-Conrad excursion is expected to return from Washington tonight at 10:45.

Rev. T. A. Smoot came up from High Point on the noon train and will return tomorrow.

W. P. Fife, the drummer evangelist, passed here on the noon train today en route to New York.

Mrs. Nannie Word, of Virginia, is visiting the family of her nephew, W. W. Wood, Sr., on Spring street.

A number of Wilkes county people who were here attending court, returned home early this morning.

Rev. Robt. E. Caldwell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Winston, was here today about noon.

W. F. Clarida, one of our efficient mail carriers, left this morning to attend Sandy Creek Baptist association at Brush Creek.

Jos. J. Johnson, who was here yesterday purchasing goods for the alliance store of which he is manager, returned home today.

Messrs. Hinkle Bros. have opened their new store at 110, West Market street. We commend these gentlemen to the trading public. Read what they say in their new ad in this paper.

Handsome invitations have been issued for a reception to be given by the Merchants and Manufacturers Association, in their rooms in the Katz building, on next Thursday evening the 14th, inst.

Mr. Steven Miller, who is connected with Maxwell's furniture house of Augusta, Ga., is stopping with relatives at Mrs. R. M. Middleton's, enroute to Knoxville, Tenn., where he is to open up a branch house for the Augusta firm.

The trial of causes in the federal court proceeds rather slowly, and up to recess this afternoon, no cases of importance had been tried. The long-sentence imposed so far is six months in jail. A large attendance is still here.

The street running from West Market, past Greensboro Female college, on the west side, is being closed up. Bicycle riders and others are grumbling. They say the next street beyond is almost impassable, and that the prettiest drive in town will be spoiled by the new arrangement.

There was the usual large crowd at Dr. Blue Mountain Joe's show last night, and as usual the audience was highly entertained and pleased. Tonight an attractive program will be presented. The troupe has become so well and favorably known that it is necessary only to announce that the performance will take place.

Chairman Pickard, of the street committee, and Foreman Sam Browne both deserve special praise for the very marked improvement on Spring street. It is really one of the prettiest and most attractive streets in town and people living on that street and those near by on other streets desire to thank the street officials for the good work done and for the neat manner in which it has been completed.

Only one runaway has been reported since yesterday's issue. Late yesterday afternoon Mr. J. Henry Phipps' horse was standing in front of the store, on Asheboro street, when one of the shafts, in some way, broke and dropped on the animal's heels. Like a flash it darted away at wild speed. Mr. Phipps' little son was in the wagon and heroically held on to the reins and loudly yelled for help. The rear axle was broken and this was about all the damage done. The horse was stopped about Mr. J. A. Murchison's place and the little boy lifted from his perilous position.

Each one Separate.

If each lump of coal was separate, with legs to walk on and arms to wash and brush itself clean, it would be just a little cleaner, and could get into your cellar just a little easier than it does at present. Mind you, only just a little. We think we have the cleanest and best coal ever mined, and that we deliver it as carefully and promptly as it can be done. We should be glad to have your opinion and we'll treat you fairly.

It's Shocking

to see the soiled linen that a man who isn't neat in dress will sometimes wear, when for so little money he can look as if he came out of a bandbox. It's a mistake! We will keep you looking like a gentleman for a whole week for less than you spend on soda water or beer, if you bring your linen to the up-to-date Steam Laundry.
